

Give a Day Get a Disney Day

Disney wants to inspire one million people to volunteer a day of service in 2010 through a participating organization in their communities. So they're celebrating these volunteers' good works by giving each of them that qualify a 1-day, 1-theme park ticket to the Disneyland® Resort or Walt Disney World® Resort, free. There's no better time to make a dream come true for others and let us make a dream come true for you.

The Blue Mountain Council is an approved organization to do such a service project, and Scouting for Food on February 13, 2010 will be one of the official projects!

Here's how to register.

1. If your unit is participating in Scouting for Food in February, each volunteer and/or family must enroll in the program at www.disneyparks.com for the "Give a Day, Get a Disney Day" program – and register for the Blue Mountain Council Scouting for Food project on the 13th.
2. The unit must turn a list of Scouting for Food participants by Monday, February 15 to Scott Behrends at scott.behrends@scouting.org for verification.

Ticket quantities are limited.

If you are conducting a service project (like an Eagle Project) this winter or spring, that is open to participation by anyone in the community, and would like to make it a qualifying project through the council, contact Scott for details.
