

BLUE MOUNTAIN COUNCIL 2013 NATIONAL SCOUT JAMBOREE SCOUT INTEREST FORM

The 2013 National Scout Jamboree is less than three years away and now is the time to decide on attending!!

The jamboree is tentatively planned for early August 2013 with a final date announcement coming in early 2011.

There will be an online application available soon that everyone who wishes to attend the jamboree needs to complete. By completing this interest form and making a $100 deposit you are holding your place in line for selection.

A Boy Scout or Varsity Scout must be at least 12 years old or completed the 6th grade and be a First Class Scout by July 1, 2013 in order to attend.

The 2013 National Scout Jamboree will be held at our new high adventure base near Beckley, West Virginia along the New River. "The Summit" Bechtel Family Scout Reserve will serve as the permanent site of all future jamborees. This will be your only and only chance to be one of the "first".

All you have to do for now is complete the interest form below and submit a $100 deposit to hold your place in line. We'll send a note to you when the online application is available so you can complete it.
