Ordeal Schedule and Equipment

Friday night

- There is a chance of a light snow or rain. Come prepared for expected weather.
- Arrive by 8PM.
- Come dressed in work clothes such as jeans, work shirt, sweatshirt, warm jacket, and appropriate headgear.
- Wear hiking or work boots. Sneakers/sport shoes are highly discouraged.
- Bring work gloves.
- Have bedroll, sleeping pad, ground cover, and small waterproof tarp bundled so as to be carried separate from other gear.

Saturday

- Wear work clothes as listed above. You will be performing manual labor on a camp service project. Be prepared.
- Have a canteen or water bottle available for the day.
- Bring your scout uniform with you for wear Saturday evening for the induction ceremony, banquet and Lodge meeting.
- You will not need any cooking equipment.
- If staying over Saturday night you may need a tent for Saturday night.
- Spring and Fall Ordeals: If you are leaving Saturday evening, plan on leaving after 8 p.m. following the Lodge meeting after the banquet.
 - Saturday night is a good time for fellowship with and getting to know new Lodge Brothers.
 - This is also a time for patch trading.

Sunday Morning

- Sunday morning will be clean up and clear out.
- Breakfast will be provided.
- Arrange for pickup/departure by 9:00 AM.

Notes:

- The $40 fee covers the OA Sash, Handbook, Pocket Flap, Pocket Ribbon, food (think banquet), and the $15 annual dues, which run from January through December each year.
- The Ordeal Service Project is hard work, but once done it will be the exception for members in the future. The exception is the Elangomat – the brother guide who works along side you during the Ordeal.
- The next step is to attend fun activities, such as our regional OA convention in the fall. We call this a Conclave.
- Attend an Ordeal weekend next year to get your Brotherhood recognition. You can help with the service project but with time for much more fun with other activities.

Welcome to the Lodge!
