Training will include youth protection policies, what to bring, emergency procedures, daily camp schedule, plus much more! This is the best way to have all the information you need to make sure 2008 is the best day camp experience possible for your Cub Scouts. See you there!

District Dinner: A great success!

On Friday, March 14th, volunteers from across our district celebrated another successful year in the Oregon Trail district. Over 125 people attended this year’s dinner, held at the LDS Church in Hermiston. Attendees were greeted by great Scouting and camping decorations and feasted on a delicious served meal of pork roast, mashed potatoes, salad, rolls, and steamed vegetables and three choices of cake.

We were privileged to hear about the incredible journey to the 2007 World Jam-

The following awards were also presented:

- Scoutmaster of the Year: Doug Smith
- Scouter of the Year: Dave Rademacher
- Cub Rookie of the Year: Olive Horrace
- Scout Rookie of the Year: Robert Holden
- Cubmaster of the Year: David Sanders
- Cub Scouter of the Year: Rose Yzaguirre
- Mr & Mrs Scouter of the Year: Moe and Tom Lewis
- Sparkplug Award: Robert Smith
- Blossom Award: Ellen Stoddard, Lynn Ellis
- Endurance Award: Olive Horrace
- Fireman Award: Doug Smith and Troop 687
- Cubmaster Rookie of the Year: Charlie Clupny

boree at Gilwell Park in England by Randy and Mary Ann Price, who served on Staff at the World Jamboree.

The awards portion of the evening began by awarding Chief Corpus and Gary Brown their Wood Badge beads and then recognizing each of the units who were “Centennial Quality Units” in 2007.

The District Award of Merit was also presented to two outstanding individuals, each of whom has dedicated their lives to helping young people grow through the Scouting program. The 2008 District Award of Merit winners are: Bertha Robinson - Roundtable Commissioner and Chief Corpus - Cubmaster, Pack 602, 11 year old Camp Director, and Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 602.

Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to ensure that this year’s District Recognition Dinner was so successful. A special thanks to the following: Troop 679 for our flag ceremony; The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Hermiston Stake for the facility; Tom and Moe Lewis for the food preparation, decorations and all around great job on putting a fantastic feast together, and all of the kitchen helpers, Boy Scout servers and all that helped make our night a great success. Malcolm Skinner and Steve Hoskins, our district chairman and district commissioner.
